4. HeidelbergCement is well prepared for the future
5. The positive development continued in Q1 2014
6. Outlook for 2014: continued growth in revenue and results

Mega trends support growth of building materials industry

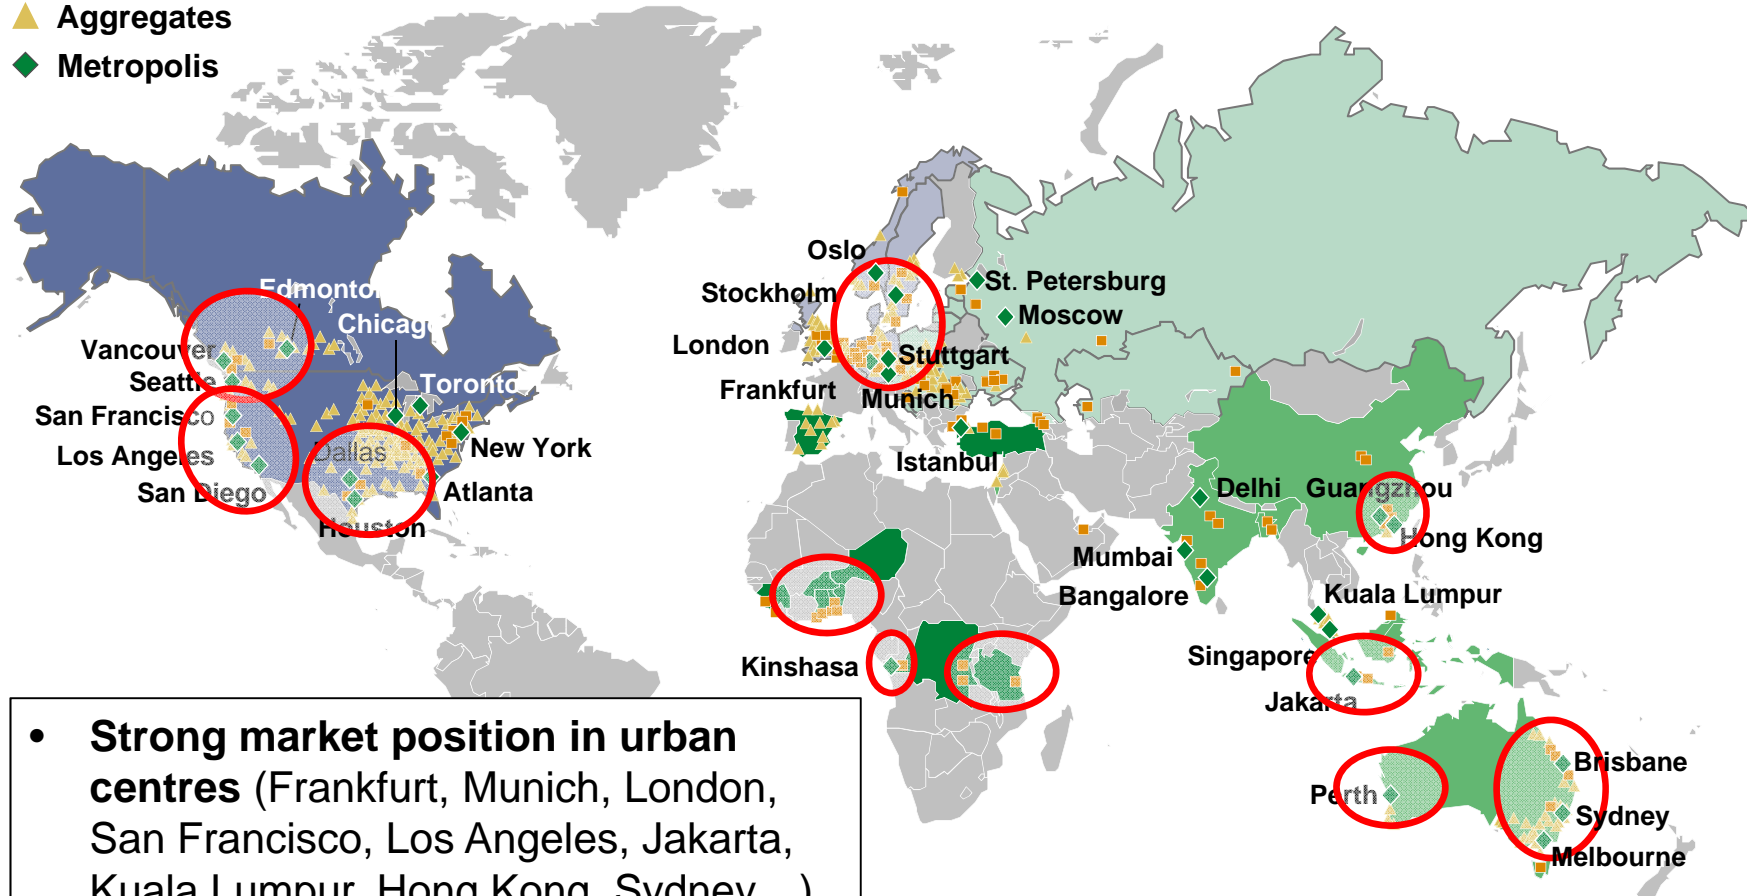

Fundamental drivers for cement consumption are attractive

Cement-based products are key for industrialisation and development of prosperity

Excellent positioning in attractive micro markets

- Cement
- ▲ Aggregates
- ◆ Metropolis

- Strong market position in urban centres (Frankfurt, Munich, London, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Jakarta, Kuala Lumpur, Hong Kong, Sydney...)
- Proximity to important raw material markets (Western Canada, Texas, Norway, Ghana, Tanzania, Australia)

Cement and aggregates form the base of our dual raw materials strategy

- Western and Northern Europe
- North America
- Eastern Europe-Central Asia
- Asia-Pacific
- Africa-Mediterranean Basin

Investment in innovation shows results

Increase in expenditure for research and technology

Successful development of alternative clinker technology - BCT

- Discovery of new reactive clinker phase
- About 30% lower CO₂ emissions and about 10%–15% energy reduction compared with conventional clinker
- Basis technology protected by patent applications
- Large-scale industrial test in Germany: 1,500 t of clinker

Construction of new center for R&T in Leimen

- 170 workplaces and several modern labs

HEIDELBERGCEMENT

■ Long-term commitment for sustainability

- The HeidelbergCement Sustainability Ambitions 2020 define 6 key action areas and respective goals:
 - Occupational health and safety
 - Energy and CO₂ management
 - Alternative raw materials and fuels
 - Biodiversity management
 - Pollutant emissions
 - Sustainable construction

Our focus: occupational health and safety and climate protection

HEIDELBERGCEMENT

■ Our focus: biodiversity

■ Biodiversity management

- Quarry Life Award 2014
 - International competition for new ideas for conserving and promoting species diversity in quarries in 22 countries worldwide (new: Indonesia, Turkey, USA)
- Partnership with BirdLife International
 - 12 cooperation projects in seven European countries

■ Diversity in the workforce as factor for success

Securing the success of our business by including various cultures, talents, and levels of experience

- Local management at the individual production sites
- International workforce at the Group headquarters
- Teams with a wide range of experience and complementary skills
- Balanced age structure
- Composition of the managements reflects the structure of the workforce, e.g. proportion of men and women

Potential merger of Lafarge und Holcim offers opportunities and risks for HeidelbergCement

Merger of Lafarge and Holcim...

Announcement of potential merger

- 4 April 2014: Lafarge and Holcim announce a „merger of equals“
- Merger to be realised by mid-2015

Merger is subject to certain conditions

- Activities of Lafarge and Holcim overlap in 23 countries; combined market share in some cases >50% (e.g. Ecuador, France, Morocco, Philippines, Romania)
- Significant disposals are to be expected to comply with antitrust regulations

... with opportunities and risks for HC

LafargeHolcim would be by far the largest player

- Merged company would be present in around 90 countries in the world
- But: HeidelbergCement has a critical mass to act in a competitive way; advantageous geographical positioning remains unchanged

Potential opportunities to acquire divested activities

- Divestments offer potential opportunities for attractive investments
- Important: No acquisitions to increase the size only – thorough check if they are strategically important and add to the value of HC

Critical examination of merger by antitrust authorities expected

Economic outlook 2014

Global GDP growth expected to increase from 3.0% to 3.7%

- Recovery in industrial countries of North America and Europe
- Soft landing in China; further growth in developing economies in Asia and Sub-Saharan Africa
- Growth in emerging countries benefits from increasing exports but is slowed down by rising interests, necessary structural reforms, and a higher capital outflow

Downside risks: mainly political

- Relapse into euro crisis due to absence of necessary reforms
- Further devaluation of currencies against the euro due to the tapering of the Federal Reserve
- Political conflicts in the Middle East and Eastern Europe could impact energy supply

In 2014, HeidelbergCement benefits from the economic development in the industrialised countries, esp. in North America, the UK, Germany, and Northern Europe (almost 50% of Group revenue)

■ US recovery: HeidelbergCement is especially well positioned to benefit from the upswing

- 8% demand growth in cement in 2014
 - PCA forecasts average annual growth rate of 9% in 2014-2017
- Potential to increase production; capacity utilisation of around 80%¹⁾ in North America in 2013
- Extensive network of import terminals with market-leading profitability to take advantage of more long-term recovery
- Aggregates volume recovery potential (volumes still near trough); reserves of 13bn tonnes in North America
- Tax shield in the USA due to losses carried forward; drop through from EBITDA to cash

HEIDELBERGCEMENT

■ UK recovery: HeidelbergCement with fully integrated market position

- Very low cement consumption per capita (<200kg) for several years
 - Structural need for rising cement consumption
- Residential demand drives short-term recovery
- Major infrastructure projects drive mid-term growth
 - e.g. Hinkley Point C nuclear power station, Crossrail, HS2 – high speed rail link London-Birmingham-Manchester-Leeds
- HeidelbergCement with fully vertically integrated position in cement, aggregates, ready-mixed concrete, and asphalt (together around 10% of Group revenue)
- Tax shield due to losses carried forward; drop through from EBITDA to cash

HEIDELBERGCEMENT

Indonesia: demand and supply dynamics

Demand potential intact

- Worldwide 4th largest population (~250 million) -> high domestic demand
- GDP CAGR ~6% for 2014-2018 expected
- Significant potential for cement consumption: 223 kg/capita (Vietnam ~500 kg, Singapore >1,000 kg)
- Large infrastructure projects support demand

Short-term supply growth limited

- Significant entry barriers for new players
 - Land ownership, permitting process
 - Resistance from local communities
 - Distribution, brand recognition
- Weak currency makes imports less attractive

6% consumption growth scenario

- Capacity utilisation
- Consumption (mt)
- Capacity (mt)

Supply and demand balanced until at least 2016

Outlook 2014

- Continued strong recovery in the USA and UK
- Demand growth in Asia and Africa
- Germany, Poland, and Russia strong; stabilisation in other European markets, especially in Benelux, the Czech Republic, and Hungary
- Currently no impact on operating business in the Ukraine and in Russia
- Price increases in all markets supported by “PERFORM” and “CLIMB Commercial”
- Target is to keep energy costs flat; slight to moderate increase in raw material and staff costs

Improved operational and financial result

- Volume growth in all Group areas
- Increase in revenue, operating income, and profit for the financial year¹⁾
- Further decrease in financing costs
- Reduction of net debt

Further focus: disposal projects

Disposal of building products

Geographical presence
(combined revenue: >USD 1 billion)

USA

Canada

UK

Key products

Bricks

Pipe &
Precast

Pressure
Pipe

Structural Precast

Aircrete
Blocks

Various disposal options are being considered and evaluated

Other disposal projects

- Disposal of cement plant Raigad in India
 - Process completed in January 2014
- Disposal of loss making Gabon plant
 - Process completed in March 2014
- Disposal of non-core assets in Europe
- Further disposal of unused fixed assets
 - Idle and unused items are being checked in all countries
- Disposal of exhausted quarries
 - Valuable land assets

Optimisation of asset base is a continuing process at HeidelbergCement
